

SOUTHERN SIERRA COUNCIL, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

New for 2011, Camp Kern is offering an alternative to Philmont that is easier to get to, closer to home and half the price! Kaiser Wilderness Adventure is a 5 day mountaineering adventure in the High Sierra's of California. Scouts will be members of a 20-person team, learning and applying skills to conquer the strenuous challenges of the program in a dynamic mountain environment.

KAISER WILDERNESS ADVENTURE HIGHLIGHTS

Team Building and Leadership skills are applied to develop a knowledge of high country and mountain wilderness trekking.

The five day adventure will encounter high passes and unspoiled scenery. We will camp at three different high country lakes with plenty of free time for exploring and fishing.

Scouts will increase their self-confidence and advance their outdoor skills while sharing their knowledge and enthusiasm with others.

KAISER WILDERNESS ADVENTURE ACTIVITIES

As a member of the Kaiser Wilderness Adventure Team, you will participate in activities like these:

Low Impact Backpacking Modern methods of wilderness camping are practiced. Hike through pristine forests and unforgettable scenic venues.

Basic Rock Climbing Basic techniques of belaying, rappelling and rope handling skills will be taught. These skills will be put into practice at one of the remote wilderness campsites, supervised by our highly qualified climbing staff.

Mountain Biking Bike over endless miles of National Forest logging roads and wilderness scenic byways.

Horse Trek to Kaiser Peak Take an 8 hour trek to the top of the world, 10,320 feet. Take in 360 degree views and then return to majestic Nellie Lake for an overnight stay.

The safety of each participant is of primary concern. Certified instructors monitor each event, while group support encourages self-confidence, team work and positive self image.
